

The best bat your kid ever held

If your kid plays baseball or softball, we've got a bat that will hold memories like it was a time capsule.

By Robert Murphy
President, Dayton Dragons

I get asked all the time: "How can my son or daughter be a bat boy or girl?"

I don't blame them. Heck, if I wasn't a grown adult, I'd like to experience being a bat boy for a day.

It's a cool experience for the select few who have the opportunity to do it.

Daydream for a moment and imagine, as a kid, if you had the chance to pick up the bat that just hit a home run by a future Major League star.

Imagine being right there in the action, hanging out in the dugout, and having the best seat in the house to watch a game.

I want to give your child the chance to have these rare experiences.

I'm also including some other cool things that really lets your kid (and the family) feel like a professional ball player:

- Tickets for the family.
- A pre-game tour of Fifth Third Field with your family.
- Your child's very own Dayton Dragons uniform.
- A signing bonus of $53.
- A live, on-air radio interview with your kid.
- A customized Dragons baseball card.
- A Dragons baseball bat autographed by every player on the team.

Any child between the ages of 7 and 14 can sign up for this once-in-a-lifetime experience. There's nothing to buy. But, you do need to register.

Here's how: Go to your local Fifth Third Bank. Look for the Bat Boy/Girl for a Day display inside the bank. Read the rules of the contest. Fill out a registration form, and put it in the box. No purchase is necessary.

Carrying a home run bat back to the dugout can be a thrill just by itself.

We'll pull one name out of the box. Imagine your kid's name being on that form.

Somebody's kid is going to win. It might as well be yours.
